GO THE EXTRA TILE

Roff

BACKGROUND | ABOUT ROFF

At Roff, we've been dedicated to innovation and quality in the construction industry for many years. As a leading brand in the field of tile and stone adhesive products, we understand the pivotal role that design plays in transforming spaces. Our products have been at the forefront of countless architectural and interior design projects across India, setting new standards for creativity, durability, and excellence.

We believe in the power of young minds to push the boundaries of creativity and practicality.

THE CHALLENGE

Design a mural that can be replicated across Roff's network of premium tile showrooms throughout India.

The mural should showcase the effects and advantages of Roff to the consumer visually and make it an integral part of tile and stone application process. Like Fevicol being the go-to answer for wood working, Roff should be the answer for tile and stone application.

THE DELIVERABLES

Design one mural measuring either 2ft x 3ft OR 2ft x 2ft.

The mural must use tiles placed in a coherent and consistent grid.

You can use any size of tiles that are available in the market - be it 1-inch square tiles, 4-inch square tiles, 12-inch square tiles or even larger. The tiles could be ceramic, handmade, glass, full-bodied, vitrified, porcelain, marble, granite and other natural stones.

You can use any colour, make or type of tile, and even use different types of tiles in your mural, as long as every tile fits in to your selected grid for the mural.

You MUST only use Roff tile adhesives, grout and other products to bring your murals to life. Visit the Roff website at www.roff.in or any Roff premium tile showroom to know about the range of products available.

THE JUDGING PROCESS

- There's exciting news. Though this brief will follow the same judging process as all others at the Kyoorius Young Blood Awards, Roff has an ace up its sleeve.
- All entries shortlisted for the Red Elephant will be brought to life in-person by the Roff team. Hence, the Red Elephant will be chosen on the basis of real, fully constructed murals as per your submitted design by the Roff team.

CONSIDERATIONS

- Hence, do your homework. Visit dealers, visit shops, visit markets, speak to experts and mentors. The tiles you use and the Roff products you use must be available in the market.
- Mention the Roff Shade Card Code or product details, as well as clear details about the tiles used.
- We encourage you to play with tile patterns, and to keep current tile trends in mind.
- A clear concept or theme is always a plus.
